

Meet CRAIG W. ANDERSON, MD from Central Ohio Newborn Medicine

In 1982, Dr. Craig W. Anderson joined Grant Medical Center to become the Director of Newborn Medicine. From there, he built a practice at Grant and expanded that practice to Mount Carmel West Hospital and Columbus Children's Hospital, leading to the formation of Central Ohio Newborn Medicine.

Highly respected in his field, Dr. Anderson has served as President of the Columbus Medical Association, President of the Ohio State Medical Association and has been an active delegate to the American Medical Association. He is also the Medical Director of the Mother's Milk Bank of Ohio. Dr. Anderson graduated from Muskingum University with Honors in Biology and currently serves on their Board of Trustees. He also attended The Ohio State University College of Medicine and recently was the recipient of their Lifetime Achievement Award.

Dr. Anderson has also been honored with the Children's Hospital Teacher of the Year Award, Columbus Business First's Champions of Health Care, the March of Dimes Health Leadership Award for Physicians in Academia, the Mount Carmel Foundation's Dr. Tom E. Lewis Philanthropy Award, and Columbus Monthly's "Top Doc" award for several consecutive and current years.

He resides in Upper Arlington where he was born and raised. Dr. Anderson and Deborah, his wife of more than 40 years, have three adult children, Ally, Andrew and Ashley, all of whom live in Columbus, in addition to three grandchildren. In his free time, he enjoys traveling, sports and spending time with his family.
